Vote Historic Core!

Keep in the know of art, culture, civic events, and more with our local

Once again, it is time to cast your votes for the Los Angeles Downtown News "Best of Downtown".

Remember to vote "Historic Core Farmers Market" as the best Farmers Market (Question #80), and "Historic Core BID" as the best BID (Question #123). Our Farmers Market continues to be the most successful for EBT customers and sets Market Match program records. It also positively activates the 5th Street corridor, while highlighting local shops and businesses. The Historic Core BID remains committed to working tirelessly to continue improving the neighborhood we call home.

REMINDER! The Historic Core's very own farmers market happens every Sunday from 9am-3pm* on 5th Street between Broadway and Spring.

*Note the newly extended hours!

Our Farmers Market is trying to extend hours but we need your help, please email us at

Broken sidewalks were littered with elderly limbs
In the ninety-eighties version of policy spillover Buildings filled with Pigeon pebbles from flocks who had converted the landings and stairwells to marble chute slots in living pinball machines, shooting for the jackpot, a basement location.

Other migrant species also sought the structures
Owners from lands filled with sorcerer's designs
Clinging to silver amulets to nix the devil's eye Reading tarot cards to ward off trickery and lies spoken in confusing tones of English language.

When big stakes players leave for better places
Crossing hope pass to reach the flowering ridge.
Mystery bearers are the ones to remake spaces Pigeon pebbles don't scare compared to pillage of their villages by militia men with masked faces
Or big hatted others preaching total life religion.
